AMUSEMENTS.

John B. Gould, John B. Gould, the prominent and popular organist, will lecture, on Wednesday evening at the Congregational church, corner of Tenth and G streets, for the benefit of the Women's Christian Association, choosing for his subject "The Character of the Great American Church." The originality of his ideas and beauty of expression make his lectures unique. Those interested in the benefits of religion are invited to hear him. The lecture is given, will certainly insure a large audience.

The Black Sheep.

A fair-sized audience attended the National last evening, and seemed to heartily enjoy the entertainment, which has been much improved by the introduction of new attractions in the programme. The audience was greatly impressed by dancing. The fun which the play had proved to the public appreciate the enterprising management of the Department.

Manning's Minstrels.

We think every person of the large audience that enjoyed the entertainment of this excellent troupe last night will agree with us in proposing that it should be repeated. It is a troupe that has appeared in Washington for years.

There is one very attractive feature about its performance, and that is originality. The troupe has given us a series of entertainments which are quite unique. They have a great sense of humor, and their wit is well directed.

The show is a great success, and it is a pleasure to see them. We hope they will return again in the near future.

George W. Winslow.
